The True Story Behind A Long Walk to Water

Origins and Inspiration

A long walk to water is inspired by the real-life experiences of Salva Dut, a South Sudanese refugee who became a humanitarian and founded Water for South Sudan. Dut's journey began during the Second Sudanese Civil War (1983–2005), a brutal conflict that displaced millions of people, including children, who had to walk hundreds of miles to find safety and basic necessities like water and food. Salva's story exemplifies the resilience of the human spirit, and his dedication to helping others stems from his own hardships.

Salva Dut's Journey

Salva was just eleven years old when he fled his village to escape violence. Over the course of several years, he traveled through dangerous terrains, often walking for days without enough water, food, or shelter. His perseverance eventually led him to refugee camps in Ethiopia and Kenya, where he received education and support. Later, Dut returned to South Sudan to help others by drilling wells and providing access to clean water—transforming his personal trauma into a mission to save lives.
