Understanding "Runaway" by Alice Munro The Plot Overview "Runaway" is a short story first published as part of Alice Munro's collection Runaway in 2004. The story revolves around a young woman named Carla, her tumultuous relationship with her mother, and her encounters with a man named Rogers. Set against the backdrop of a small Canadian town, the narrative explores themes of escape, longing, and the search for identity. Carla's life is marked by a sense of entrapment—both within her family and her circumstances. Her mother's controlling nature and her own feelings of confinement propel her toward a desire to break free. The story takes a pivotal turn when Carla decides to run away with Rogers, seeking liberation from her oppressive environment. However, Munro masterfully depicts how escaping from one's circumstances often leads to unforeseen consequences, emphasizing the complexity of human choices. Themes and Symbolism Escape and Entrapment At its core, "Runaway" examines the human desire to escape from situations that feel stifling.
