Roles and Responsibilities

Babakov’s official titles and responsibilities included: - Diplomatic postings in Europe and Asia - Representation of Soviet interests in international forums - Oversight of ideological propaganda within the diplomatic corps - Participation in key policy decisions alongside Stalin and other top Soviet officials His diplomatic career was marked by pragmatism and ideological rigor, aligning closely with Stalin’s vision for the USSR.

However, concrete evidence of his involvement in any illicit activities remains elusive.

Post-Stalin Period and Decline

Following Stalin’s death in 1953, Babakov’s influence waned. The de-Stalinization process initiated by Nikita Khrushchev led to the rehabilitation of some figures and the marginalization of others closely associated with Stalin’s regime. Babakov’s political standing diminished, and he eventually retired from active service. Some historians speculate that Babakov may have been implicated in political machinations or purged from the official records to consolidate Khrushchev’s power, but definitive proof remains lacking.
